B. Status Report on Injunctions (AAG Ted Klecker)

FRANKLIN COUNTY – Mitch Harris is paid up and is registered; Chris Wood actually appeared in court a few weeks ago. It was continued to October 30th and if he doesn’t register then we’re going to go forward with the hearing then. To date, he had not registered, he still has a few weeks.

HAMILTON COUNTY – We originally field against 12 shops – 1 complied, we now have injunctions against 11 shops. Out of those 11 we have 6 remaining – Dale Robinson has complied. Jessie Paige was the only individual that showed up and advised that one of the reasons he hadn’t paid the money was because of health problems. We continued his case to November 6th and giving him a chance to register. If he doesn’t register we will be going forward with that.

BUTLER COUNTY – Three shops: Jim Fisher dba Fisher Collision Center; Anthony Bartel dba Paint & Dent Werks; Lane Couch dba Mirror Magic Auto Body these are shops where the injunction was already granted in June so now we’re going with contempt. On September 9th, a request was made to the clerk to send the contempt motions by Personal Service by the Sheriff. There was an error made in the Clerk’s office, the requests were not made and were not sent out to Jim Fisher and Lane Couch.

The clerk did say one was sent out for Anthony Bartel but the occupants said that he didn’t work at the address listed. A personal contact will be made by the investigator. We have been advised by Jim Fisher’s attorney that Fisher Collision Center is out of business even though the sign is still up – he is working on some personal cars. Investigator Gibson was out at his location a week prior and there were CR jobs out there. We will have him explain that to the judge.

C. Status Report on Legislation (ASA) – Ronald Nagy

Everything is in place. No opposition. Because of election will probably stay in place. Pushing for lame duck.
